Re: United States v. Lowenstein
10 Cr 583 (DLI)

Dear Judge ~~Lowenstein~~:

I write to request an amendment to Mr. Lowenstein's conditions of bail conditions set by your Honor on Monday August 9, 2009 to allow Mr. Lowenstein until next Wednesday to deposit the remainder of the cash bail-$20,000.00. Mr. Lowenstein was released this Wednesday and is on electronic monitoring.

Your Honor ordered that Mr. Lowenstein had until August 11 2010 (the date of his release) to deposit the Clerk of the Court cash totaling $76,000.00. Mr. Lowenstein deposited $56,000.00, monies he withdrew from his bank account. The additional $20,000.00 was to come from a check which his employer had supplied as a loan against Mr. Lowenstein's 401K. However, Mr. Lowenstein was unable on Wednesday to pick up the $20,000.00 check since the woman who had the check was not at work. He discussed this problem with his pretrial officer who advised that he had until next week to accomplish the depositing of the check. With this understanding he set-up with pretrial that he will go to his employer on Monday and then to the Clerk of the Court.

Mr. Lowenstein has complied with all other conditions of his bail-he has scheduled for the placement of a land line in his home for Sunday and has deposited with pretrial services his expired passport.

AUSA John Nowak insists that Mr. Lowenstein has failed to comply because he has not obtained the $20,000.00 check. He advised that he wishes to schedule a bail hearing for
